DEPARTMENT INTENT

Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) education focuses on the holistic development of the future citizens of modern Britain. Within this curriculum time we deliver comprehensive Relationships and Sex Education in accordance with the statutory guidance from the DfE (September 2019). Our classrooms provide rich learning opportunities for students to discover who they are, who they want to be and strategies to help them achieve their goals. PSHE & RSE education develops lifelong skills that will support students to become resilient, confident and ambitious members of a flourishing and diverse society. Our broad and inclusive PSHE & RSE curriculum ensures students are able to look after their own wellbeing; whether that be navigating life online, making responsible decisions about relationships or understanding how to manage stress. As a result of our PSHE & RSE education pupils can independently manage many of the challenges and responsibilities they face as they develop. Our outstanding PSHE & RSE provision helps pupils to fulfil their academic potential, and leave school as tenacious, empowering young people who have the skillset and determination to achieve success.

KEY STAGE 3 RATIONALE/ INTENT

At Rutlish School, PSHE & RSE is at the core of what we do and enables our students to become independent, confident, healthy and responsible members of society, as well as developing the "whole child" intellectually, morally, socially and spiritually. Through our whole-school approach to PSHE & RSE, it is our belief that excellence in these areas will lead to excellence across the curriculum and beyond in later life. In KS3, PSHE & RSE intends to build empathy and compassion (including impact on decision-making and behaviour) as well as respect for others' right to their own beliefs, values and opinions.

KEY STAGE 4 RATIONALE/ INTENT

PSHE & RSE is an incredibly enriching subject for students. A key intention in our delivery of PSHE & RSE is to provide a safe environment where students feel able to participate in the lessons on a range of issues that affect, or may affect, them throughout their lives. In PSHE & RSE lessons the setting up of ground rules, reminding students of confidentiality issues and the encouragement of students to explore a range of attitudes through case studies help to provide an appropriate environment as well as develop empathy. Teachers are aware of sensitive issues that may arise out of teaching and learning about RSE. The following are protocols for discussion based lessons with students:

- No one (teacher or student) will have to answer a personal question
- No one will be forced to take part in a discussion
- Meanings of words will be explained in a sensible and factual way
- Teachers may use their discretion in responding to questions and may say that the appropriate person to answer that question is the parent or any other trusted adult

As well as developing secure factual knowledge of moral and topical issues, we encourage students to ask deep and meaningful questions about their own worlds and the lives we share. We aim to develop attitudes of thoughtfulness and confidence about themselves - skills which are invaluable as they face the issues that are present in 21st century living.

Teachers in the PSHE & RSE department are passionate and dedicated in their commitment to provide an inclusive and nurturing environment for all students regardless of personal beliefs or views, while meeting the statutory Relationships, Sex and Health Education requirements. All students are valued for their own personal beliefs and opinions and are encouraged to continue to develop their analytical and critical thinking to encourage academic progress.

KEY STAGE 5 RATIONALE/ INTENT

The intent of our PSHE & RSE curriculum is to deliver a curriculum which is accessible to all and that will maximise the outcomes for every student so that they know more, remember more and understand more. As a result of this they will become healthy, independent and responsible members of a society who understand how they are developing personally and socially, and give them confidence to tackle many of the moral, social and cultural issues that are part of growing up. We provide our students with opportunities for them to learn about rights and responsibilities and appreciate what it means to be a member of a diverse society. Our students are encouraged to develop their sense of self-worth by playing a positive role in contributing to school life and the wider community.
